Covina Vikings Cheer Code of Conduct & Expectations

As a Covina Viking cheerleader or parent of a cheerleader, we understand and agree to expectations listed below. We understand that the safety and athletic progress of all athletes is imperative.

All athletes are valuable...together we are a TEAM!

- Safety precautions will be taken at all times. Athlete and parent agree that horseplay and/or talking when a coach/AD is speaking are not acceptable.
- All athletes are required to abide by the Covina Vikings Attendance Policy and Contract.
- Parents are expected to acknowledge receipt of texts/phone calls from coordinators or ADs.
- Athletes and parents are required to report any injury or illness on or off the field to the team AD.
- Athletes will respect other athletes and all members of the cheer staff at all times. Arguing, non-compliance, shaming, and/or critical comments are not acceptable. Athlete is to follow the instruction of the cheer staff.
- Parents and athletes will refrain from any negative posts via social media about any staff, parent, athlete, coordinator, and /or board members.
- Athletes will refrain from texts, posts, and messages that seemingly pose a danger to themselves or others.
- Athlete and parents will respect all staff, parents, athletes, and coordinators and /or board members and refrain from any negative or defaming comments or conversations about any of the above mentioned. If there is a concern, the parent/athlete must bring to the attention of the AD or cheer coordinators.
- Athletes are expected to participate to the best of their ability during practice, games, competitions, and all other events. Non-participation or lack of effort is considered as an act of defiance.
- Parents and athletes understand that the coaches oversee the placement of the athlete in all stunts, routines, and formations. An athlete can be moved from a stunt, routine, and formation at any time without parent/athlete input.
- Parents are responsible for transportation of your athlete to and from practices, games, events, etc.
- Athletes are to refrain from cell phone use during practice hours, including breaks.
- Parents and athletes understand the placement of girls on divisions are at the coordinator's discretion.
- Parents accept responsible for payments by the given date. Payment extensions cannot be granted. Any items ordered will not be distributed until payment is made and could result in the athlete "sitting out" until payment is made.

*Violations of any of the above listed are cause for dismissal from the cheer program without further warning and are at the discretion of the cheer coordinators.
